Francesco Mascheroni of Armani/Ristorante hosts Marco Bernardo of La Magnolia in Forte dei Marmi: a dinner for four in the sign of the author's cuisine

18th of October, 8.00 p.m.

Milan, 3rd of October 2022 – An appointment not to be missed for those who love haute cuisine: Tuesday 18th of October at 8.00 p.m. Armani/Ristorante will host the first 4-handed dinner of the autumn, featuring Executive Chef Francesco Mascheroni of Armani/Ristorante and Marco Bernardo, the new chef of La Magnolia, the 1 Michelin-starred restaurant of the Hotel Byron in Forte dei Marmi.

An unprecedented collaboration where the combination of Marco Bernardo's exquisitely Mediterranean cuisine with the aesthetic refinement and essential taste of Francesco Mascheroni's style reveals new harmonies of flavours, interpreted with originality and innovation.

Francesco Mascheroni exalts the Italian tradition thanks to masterly reinterpretations in an international key, he studies and selects the best raw materials to tell its story in every nuance. Echoes of distant lands, particularly oriental ones, appear in his dishes, where everything revolves around the main ingredient.

Marco Bernardo proposes cuisine that is fun, simple, and in constant dialogue with the territory. Well-defined tastes and flavors that nod to Asian influences. A chef who uses his cosmopolitan training to make customers travel between land and sea in a continuous exchange.

The menu, designed for the occasion, is a four-course meal with wine pairings chosen directly at the table.

The two chefs' amuse bouche will welcome guests, followed by Scampi, friggitelli and verbena, Marco Bernardo's starter. This will be followed by Francesco Mascheroni's first course, Rabbit plin, barbecued blue lobster, ginger-scented bisque and Marco Bernardo's second course, Mosaic of fish, saffron and lost country bread. Chef Francesco Mascheroni closes with the dessert Pollen, hay infused milk.
